ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 8, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteverision and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dropsy, the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and vitality, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many hundreds of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain, sealed envelope, absolutely free. Address him at Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do not contain any of the poisonous ingredients of accumulated impurities.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, by Dr. Pierce, 108 pages, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address as above.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandridge, Filling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Fatal Accident to a Chemist.

Frank W. Wordenberger, of New York, a chemist and inventor of a powerful new explosive, was killed at Lynn, Mass., yesterday afternoon by an accidental discharge of some of the stuff while giving a demonstration of its power in the presence of a number of contractors.

George Tatnall, also of New York, president of a company that has been endeavoring to get the explosive on the market, was fatally hurt. Francis Chiocci, an Italian laborer, was severely injured, and a dozen spectators were slightly hurt by flying bits of rock.

Among the injured are a number of Lynn and Salem contractors.

Wordenberger and Tatnall were blown through the air for nearly thirty feet and every shred of clothing was torn from their bodies. Both men were fearfully mangled. They were taken to the hospital unconscious, and Wordenberger died yesterday evening. It is not believed that Tatnall can survive tonight.

Wordenberger came to this country from Germany a short time ago. He discovered the explosive while working as a chemist in a tannery in his own country. A few months ago he was slightly injured by a premature explosion in New York.

Suicide over Husband's Corpse.

In the agony of grief and despair over the death of her husband, David E. Sharretts, of Washington, in the Massachusetts Homeopathic Hospital in Boston Thursday night, his wife, who had tended him devotedly, shot and killed herself within five minutes after her husband had breathed his last. As she knew her husband was to die, she had prepared herself by concealing a weapon in her garments when she came to the deathbed. After her husband expired Mrs. Sharretts quietly took the doctors and nurses. "Please leave me alone with my husband a minute." In profound sympathy for the suffering woman, the others withdrew from the room. Hardly had they closed the door than there was a report. When the attendants rushed in they were horror-stricken to see Mrs. Sharretts gasping out her life as she lay across the body of her husband. She had sent a bullet crashing into her right temple from a .32-caliber revolver. Mr. Sharretts was a clerk in the War Department at Washington, and was about forty-four years old. He was born in that city and had spent all of his life there, practically. His wife, Mrs. Belma Sharretts, who was about four years his junior, it is understood, was a Boston woman.

The Mysterious Murder in Richmond.

The two erring wives from Roanoke were the chief witnesses before the coroner's jury in Richmond yesterday in regard to the mysterious death of C. C. Henderson in an alley beside the Klondyke saloon Wednesday night. Both young, both comely, Mrs. Sara Muse, two months married, Mrs. Nora Bohn, only seven months under the matrimonial halter, wept and declared they went to the house in east Broad street, kept by Lulu Penn, to see a girl from Roanoke. Both declared they had met no men. It was Mrs. Bohn's husband who accompanied the two women to the depot in Roanoke and bought their tickets for a pleasure trip that had ended so unhappily. Mrs. Bohn, who says she has long lived in Roanoke, signed her deposition. Mrs. Muse acknowledged she could not sign her name and her mark was made and witnessed. A negro girl who worked in the house saw the blow passed that killed Henderson. She was just passing the mouth of the alley, but did not know the man who struck the blow. Mrs. Muse and Mrs. Bohn were dismissed at the close of their testimony and they boarded a train for Roanoke. The police believe they know who killed Henderson. So far it is as much a mystery as ever.

Bridegroom Fined.

Malvin E. Hughes, who was arrested in Washington Thursday evening for carrying concealed weapons two hours after he and Miss Hattie E. Taylor, 18 years old, with whom he had eloped to Washington from Lowmoor, Va., were married in the parlors of a local hotel, was fined $100 in the Police Court yesterday morning, but Judge O'Neal suspended sentence, and the bridegroom and his bride left the courthouse and started home to seek parental forgiveness and blessings. Hughes' release was due to the pleadings of his wife, who took the witness stand in her husband's behalf. "It will break my heart," she told Judge O'Neal, "if Malvin is sent to jail. He is unaccustomed to the ways of the city, and his carrying a pistol was only as a means of protection." Shortly after the wedding Thursday Hughes left his wife, saying he would be gone only a few moments, as he wished to purchase some fruit. Later, it was charged, he went into a Sixth street restaurant and fell asleep on the counter. When an effort was made to awaken him, it is alleged, he became unruly and flourished a revolver.

Dream Fulfilled.

Rev. Oscar E. Braune, pastor of the First German Lutheran Church in New York, N. Y., announced yesterday as he began funeral services over the body of Miss Frances Lorna Wadsworth, that he would preach, from the same text, as he had delivered in a dream two months ago over the dead body of the same young woman. Mr. Braune said that just two months to the day, prior to the drowning of Miss Wadsworth in the surf at Bradley Beach, which occurred on last Tuesday, he dreamed that she was before him, dead, and that he was preaching her funeral sermon. The impressiveness of the dream was so strong that he related it to his wife the following day. He has recalled that his text in the dream-sermon was, "Be ready also," taken from Luke xxi:14. He used that text yesterday, and, as nearly as he could recall the words of the sermon of his dream.
